

FEE INFORMATION FOR PAYMENT ACCOUNT

with basic features pursuant to § 25 (1) of the Austrian Consumer Payment Account Act (VZKG) for particularly vulnerable persons

The features of a payment account with basic functions

A payment account with basic functions is offered by Austrian Anadi Bank AG exclusively in Euros and only provides the following banking services:

- All procedures necessary for opening, managing and closing the payment account
- Services for paying in a cash amount to the payment account
- Services for withdrawing cash from the payment account within the European Economic Area, at a customer service counter and also during and outside the bank's opening times at cash machines
- The execution of the following payment procedures within the European Economic Area:
 - Direct debits;
 - Payment procedures using payment cards, including online payments;
 - Transfers (including standing orders) at terminals and customer service counters (where available) and also via the Online Banking service provided by Austrian Anadi Bank AG
- Management of the payment account with basic functions on a credit balance basis.

Note

- Access to a payment account with basic functions is not linked to the obligatory purchase of additional services.
- The opening of a payment account with basic functions is restricted to consumers.
- As a service provided by us, transfers outside of the European Economic Area are also possible via the payment account with basic functions, as well as transfers within the European Economic Area in foreign currencies. Unless the currency in question is an EEA currency, the latter will be carried out under the applicable conditions of Austrian Anadi Bank AG for foreign payment transactions.
- Payment accounts with basic functions can only be held as individual accounts. No authorised signatories can be named.
- The reduced maximum charge applies in regard to groups of socially and economically vulnerable consumers while they remain in a state of vulnerability (as envisaged in § 1 of the Ordinance of the Federal Minister for Employment, Social Affairs and Consumer Protection concerning the determination of groups of socially or economically vulnerable consumers (VZKG-V), BGBl. II Nr. 255/2016).
